Assistant Commissioner for Patents

Dear Sir/Madam:

Applicants filed the above-referenced application with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on December 5, 2000. This application was co-filed with Application Serial No. 09/730,306 Methods and Systems for generating Documents From Voice Interactions, Confirmation No. 6886. As evidenced from the attached filing receipt, the Patent Office has inadvertently mixed these two applications and confused the files. Enclosed herewith is the original post card receipt indicating that the correct Serial No. of 09/730,353 belongs to the application entitled Methods for Peer to Peer Sharing of Voice Enabled Document Templates and not Methods and Systems for Generating Documents from Voice Interactions as the filing receipt received indicates.

Moreover, it appears since the Office mixed the two applications, the notice to file missing parts indicates the oath was not properly filed, although as evidenced from the attached materials it clearly was filed properly, and is again provided for the Office's reference. However,

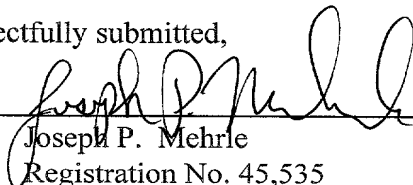

Applicant has corrected the margins on the originally submitted drawings as required by the new rules.

Please resolve the filing receipt indicating that Serial No. 09/730,353 has an attorney docket No. of 25526-1B, with dual inventors of Gregory J. Kapust and Charles Cole Nofsinger and a title of Methods for Peer to Peer Sharing of Voice Enabled Document Templates, with 6 drawings, and 20 claims, and reissue a corrected filing receipt. Furthermore, accept Applicant's corrected drawing sheets. All previously filed material is enclosed herewith for the Office's review, along with the Notice to file Missing Parts which belongs with the co-filed application have the Serial No. 09/730,306. A separate response will address the correction of the Application with Serial No. 09/730,306 Methods and Systems for Generating Documents from Voice Interactions.

Applicant sincerely believes that this is a complete response to the Office's notice to filing missing parts and corrects all objections pending and respectfully request a corrected filing receipt indicating the same.

Respectfully submitted,

By
